Preliminary section: Main changes

The protection of your personal data is important to the BNP Paribas Group.

We have improved our Privacy Policy by being more transparent about the following information:

- processing of data related to anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing and international sanctions (asset freezing) purposes.

Introduction

We take the protection of your personal data very seriously.

The BNP Paribas Group, of which Ifitalia is a part, has adopted specific rules on the protection of personal data in its "Personal Data Protection Charter", which may be consulted in the Privacy section of www.ifitalia.it.

International Factors Italia S.p.A. with registered office in Assago (MI) Via del Mulino, 9 (hereinafter referred to as "we" or "Ifitalia"), in the context of an existing factoring relationship with your Supplier, has become the assignee of receivables originally owed by the latter to you (hereinafter referred to as the "Assigned Relationship"). This necessarily entailed the communication to Ifitalia of your personal data (hereinafter referred to as "data"), contained in the documents relating to the Assigned Relationship collected by your Supplier as the Data Controller.

As a result of the aforementioned assignment, Ifitalia has become the Data Controller and is responsible for the collection and processing of your personal data as part of its activities in relation to the management of the Assigned Relationship and, where finalised, the Contract referred to in Section 3.3 below.

This Privacy Policy explains how we process your personal data and how you may control and manage it.

1. ARE YOU A RECIPIENT OF THIS PRIVACY POLICY?

This Privacy Policy, therefore, applies if you ("You") are:

- a party whose relationship has been assigned by us as part of the existing Factoring relationship with your Supplier or you have an existing contractual relationship with us (e.g. as a guarantor)

For some reasons, we may also collect information about you even where you have no relationship with us. This might happen, for instance, when one of our customers provides us with your contact details, if for example you are:

- legal representative;
- ultimate beneficial owner;
- stakeholder of the company;
- representative of the assigned debtor;
- personnel of service providers or business partners.

If you provide us with the personal data of third parties in the relationship, do not forget to inform these parties of the disclosure of their personal data and invite them to read this Privacy Policy. We will also inform them where possible (e.g. if we have their contact details).

2. HOW CAN YOU CONTROL THE PROCESSING OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

Through your rights, you may exercise significant control over your personal data and the processing of your personal data by us.

If you wish to exercise your rights as set out below, you may send your request to dirittiprivacy@ifitalia.it or dirittiprivacy@pec-ifitalia.it, enclosing a copy of your identity document. You may also use the form made available in the Privacy section of our website www.ifitalia.it.

2.7 You have rights against an automated decision

In principle, you have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, whether based on profiling or otherwise, which has a legal effect or significantly affects you. However, we may automate such a decision if it is necessary for entering into or performing a contract with us, authorised by regulation or if you have given your consent.

In any case, you have the possibility to contest the decision, express your opinions and request the intervention of a person who may review the decision.

2.8 You may revoke your consent

If you have given your consent to the processing of your personal data, you may revoke this consent at any time, without affecting the lawfulness of the processing carried out by us before the revocation.

2.9 You may request the portability of part of your personal data

You may request a copy of the personal data you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable form. Where technically feasible, you may request that this copy be transmitted to a third party.
